SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

X Due to the defendant's substance abuse history, she shall participate as directed and approved by the probation officer in treatment for narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis or other drug detection measures and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility or residential reentry center. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages, illegal substances, and all other substances for the purposes of intoxication. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with substance abuse counseling and/ or testing based on a copay sliding fee scale approved by the United States probation Office. Copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling. The number of tests shall not exceed 52 in a one year period.

X Based on prior compliance issues during supervision, , the defendant shall submit her person, residence, real property, place of business, computer, electronic communication and data storage device or media, vehicle and any other property under her control to a search, conducted by the United States Probation Officers and such other law enforcement personnel as the probation officer may deem advisable and at the direction of the United States Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision, without a warrant. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

X As the Court has reason to believe that the defendant is in need of mental health treatment, the defendant shall undergo a mental health assessment and participate in a program of mental health treatment, in anger management, domestic violence, cognitive skills, or other forms of therapy or counseling that may be recommended and as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. This may include a psychiatric evaluation and may require participation in a medication regiment. The defendant shall follow the medication regiment as prescribed by a licensed practitioner, at the direction of the probation officer. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with services rendered for counseling and or testing based on a copay sliding fee scale, as directed and approved by the United States Probation Office. The copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.

X The defendant shall refrain from any use of alcohol.
